upon Occasion of the Queen's being with Child.

¶ This Service shall be the same with the usual Office for the Days above named, except where it is hereafter otherwise Appointed.

¶ At the beginning of Morning Prayer, the Minister shall Read these Sentences following.

I Exhort, that first of all Prayers, Supplications, Intercessions, and Thanksgivings be made for all Men; for Kings, and all that are in Authority, that we may Lead a quiet and Peaceable Life in all Godliness, and Honour;

Whatsoever He would that they should Do unto you, Do ye even so to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

In the Place of [Veni Exultemus] shall be used this following Hymn.

Psal. 96. 1.

ver. 2.

Sing unto the Lord a new Song, Sing unto the Lord all the while Earth.
Sing unto the Lord, and Praise His Name by Telling His Salvation from Day to Day.

For the Lord is Great, and cannot worthily be Praised, He is more to be feared than all Gods.

Glory and Worship are before him; Power and Honour are in his Sanctuary.

7.

Ascribe unto the Lord, O ye Hundreds of the People, Ascribe unto the Lord, Worship and Power.

Ascribe unto the Lord, the Honour due unto His Name, Bring Presents, and Come into His Courts.

Psal. 82. 1.

God standeth in the Congregation of Princes, He is Judge among the Gods.

Psal. 33. 15.

There is no King saved by the Multitude of an Host, neither is any Mighty Man Delivered by much strength.

ver. 17.

But the Eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him, and upon them that put their Trust in His Mercy.

Psal. 40. 15.

Let all those that seek Thee, be joyful and Glad in Thee, and let such as Love thy Salvation, say, alway, the Lord be Praised.

Psal. 74. 2.

Think upon thy Congregation, whom Thou hast Redeemed, and Purchased of Adversaries.

used.

A Almighty and Everlasting God, We most humbly Acknowledge, That in Thee alone We Live, Move, and have our Being;
and that Children, and the Fruit of the Womb are all and Heritage that cometh out of Thee. We therefore devoutly beseech Thee to Preserve and Protect our most Gracious Sovereign Lord King James, and so Bless him, that he may see his Children's Children, and Peace upon him. We pray Thee also for his Royal Consort Queen Mary. Make her, O Lord, as a fruitful Vine upon the Walls of his house, and his Children like Olive branches round about his Table. Increase and Multiply the whole Royal Family, That the King's Seed may endure for Ever, and his Throne be as the Sun before Thee. So We the People will Remember, and Praise thy Name from one Generation to another, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Thanksgiving and Prayer. 107

The Prayer, O Almighty God the Father of all Mercies, Thou shalt follow one of the two Collects in the Book of Common Prayer for the Sunday after the Ascension.

¶ The Epistle. 1 Thel. 5. v. 14. to the 26.

¶ The Gospel. S. Matth. 5. v. 3. to the 13.

¶ After the Prayer for the Church Militant, shall follow this Prayer.

O Almighty God the Blessed and only Progenitor, by whose Appointment and Blessing Kingdoms, Nobles, and Kingdoms are Established in Peace: We become humble Suitors to thy Divine Majesty in Behalf of our Dread Sovereign Lord King JAMES, That Thou wouldest Defend his Person in Safety, and Prosper his Reign with Honourable Successes, and make his Name Glorious in the maintenance of Truth, Righteousness and Charity; That under the happy influence of his Government, We may all lead Quiet and Peaceable Lives, in all Godliness, and Honesty. We Acknowledge, with thankful Hearts, the great Mercy Thou hast bestowed upon him, and his Royal Consort, and the whole Realm, in the apparent Hopes of farther Issue. Let the Prayers of the People Prehail, that our Hopes be not Cut off, nor our Expectations Disappointed. Let Thy Watchful Providence Overshadow our Gracious Queen, Preserve her Health, Support her Spirit, and Grant her an Easy, and Happy Deliverance. And do Thou so Graciously Bless and Multiply the whole Royal Family, That the Ages to come may eternally
